Community Information

Outside of School Hours Care Arrangements

The current arrangements in place for the delivery of Outside of School Hours Care (OSHC) services at school sites are due to expire in February 2022. The Education Directorate will be working with schools and current OSHC providers to extend their services agreement to ensure continuity of service for school communities for a further three year period. Over this time the Directorate will continue to work with schools and OSHC providers to support the delivery of quality services to school communities.
